

BEAVER
WALKING STICKS
BY COLE MILLER

COLORS

TYPEFACES

HEADLINES: MOREGANIC

BEAVER WALKING STICKS

BODY: POPPINS

Beavers use sticks and logs to dam rivers and build their dens, known as 'lodges.' They use their enlarged front incisors to break down plants and trees. Their front teeth grow continuously and are stained red by an iron pigment that serves to strengthen the tooth enamel against wear.

PRIMARY LOGO

SECONDARY LOGO

ADDITIONAL MARKS

